October 11 - 21, 2008

Personally escorted by Michael White, Feng Shui Master Designer, with lectures by Chinese Feng Shui Masters and Interior Designers. Includes: 5 STAR hotels, all meals, sightseeing, intra China flights and transportation, tips, taxes, lectures on Feng Shui. Literally translated as "wind and water", Feng Shui is the ancient Chinese art of balancing, harmonizing, and enhancing the flow of natural energies in the environment. Feng Shui is a philosophy and information system which reveals how your home and workplace affect your health, relationships and personal growth. The universal principles it is based upon make it applicable and adaptable to the needs of today's business and domestic life. Through effective application of Feng Shui principles, elements in your environment that affect your well-being are identified, and through careful analysis and reorganization, these elements can be brought into balance. Feng Shui can be applied to all aspects of life.
